

WINELIST

We hope our wine list is easy to navigate and the tasting notes give you a clear indication of what you might expect from the wine without being too blousy. We want our wine to be accessible, approachable and enjoyed.

We have moved to stem-less glasses to remove the over formal feel that some restaurants create with their lists. Instead we hope to make your experience more tactile and relaxed. However, we won't mind at all if you would prefer a stemmed glass. Please just ask.
